

RECTOR RETIRING

Rev. E. Ravenscroft Nearly 30 Years At Buckerell

After nearly thirty years as rector of Buckerell, Rev. E. Ravenscroft is retiring in May of this year. Keenly interested in education, he has also been honorary assistant diocesan inspector of schools for the past 25 years.

Educated at Blundell's, Exeter College, Oxford, and Truro Theological College, he was ordained in 1898, and his first appointment was as assistant curate at Kenwyn, Truro. From 1902-1909 he held the living of Halberton, near Tiverton, after which he accepted the appointment at Buckerell.

WESTERN MORNING NEWS – 6 FEBRUARY 1939